HOES from Heaven

Here it is February again, the month we celebrate Valentine’s Day. The world has changed God’s beautiful creation of love to lust over the years. The younger generation thinks we are out of our minds still believing in the Old fashioned love in the Bible. First Corinthians, chapter 13 is commonly known as The Love chapter and it is featured in this month’s “Fun With God’s Word” in case you are not familiar with it. God’s true definition of love as He intended it is outlined in that chapter.

On February 14 there are two movies being released in theaters: Old Fashioned focusing on God’s meaning of love and Shades of Grey telling you that anything goes in today’s world, whatever makes you feel good is only a shade of grey and there is no such thing as truly black or white any more.

Rik Swartzwelder, the writer and director of Old Fashioned, in real life has discovered that the world’s meaning of love leaves you broken and empty with a disillusioned void in your life. Rik writes in one of his blogs about the movie, “To be clear, the characters of Clay and Amber in Old Fashioned are not perfect. They are flawed, broken people who are doing the best they can in stumbling toward a better way of loving each other... and a better understanding of God’s love for them. It’s more than a little important when making (or watching) a film that includes religious or spiritual themes that we remember and remain open to the indisputable fact that all of us—ALL of us—are still works in progress.

It’s not about passing judgment on anyone or anything... it’s about a sincere desire to find paths toward healing and wholeness in a world that often outright ignores the sacred aspect and purpose for which love and romance was created. Thank God for His mercy... and for providing us all with the one and only perfect ‘example’ this world has ever seen...”

Some of the reviews of the movie include:

“OLD FASHIONED is a love story set in reality, and it shows us the sacrifice, joy, and beauty of true love.”

“I applaud the creators of the film OLD FASHIONED for highlighting the beauty of old fashioned values, chivalry and honor.”

My daughter, Holly, was privileged to see an early viewing of Old Fashioned last month and she can’t say enough great things about it. Google Old Fashioned, the movie to view more information and watch the trailers. I can’t wait to see it. What a great way to celebrate Valentine’s Day and God’s amazing love for us.

Innocent Eyes

A merry heart doeth good like a medicine.

Proverbs 17:22

A school teacher injured his back and had to wear a plaster cast around the upper part of his body. It fit under his shirt and was not noticeable at all.

On the first day of the term, still with the cast under his shirt, he found himself assigned to the toughest students in school.

Walking confidently into the rowdy classroom, he opened the window as wide as possible and then busied himself with desk work.

When a strong breeze made his tie flap, he took the desk stapler and stapled the tie to his chest.

Discipline was not a problem from that day forth!

calm him down, palmed a penny from his pocket and pretended to pull it from Sammy's ear. Sammy was delighted.

In a flash, he snatched it from his father's hand, swallowed, and then cheerfully demanded, "Do it again, Dad!"

Two elderly couples were enjoying friendly conversation when one of the men asked the other, "Fred, how was the memory clinic you went to last month?"

"Outstanding," Fred replied. "They taught us all the latest psychological techniques: visualization, association, etc. It was great."

"That's great! And what was the name of the clinic?"

Fred went blank. He thought and thought, but couldn't remember. Then a smile broke across his face and he asked, "What do you call that flower with the long stem and thorns?"

"You mean a rose?"

"Yes, that's it!"

Fred turned to his wife.

"Rose, what was the name of that memory clinic?"

An American businessman goes to Japan on a business trip, but he hates Japanese food, so he asks the concierge at his hotel if there's any place around where he can get American food.

The concierge tells him he's in luck, there's a pizza place that just opened, and they deliver.

The concierge gives the businessman the phone number, and he goes back to his room and orders a pizza.

Thirty minutes later, the delivery guy shows up to the door with the pizza.

The businessman takes the pizza, and starts sneezing uncontrollably. He asks the delivery man, "What on earth did you put on this pizza?"

The delivery man bows deeply and says, "We put on the pizza what you ordered, pepper only."

One Sunday after church Mom asked her very young daughter what the lesson was about. Her daughter answered, "Don't be scared, you'll get your quilts." Needless to say, Mom was perplexed.

Later in the day, the Pastor stopped by for tea. Mom asked him what that morning's Sunday school lesson was about. He said, "Be not afraid, Thy comforter is coming

To tell the weather, go to your back door and look for the dog.

If the dog is at the door and he is wet, it's probably raining. But if the dog is standing there really soaking wet, it is probably raining really hard.

If the dog's fur looks like it's been rubbed the wrong way, it's probably windy.

If the dog has snow on his back, it's probably snowing. Of course, to be able to tell the weather like this, you have to leave the dog outside all the time, especially if you expect bad weather.

A teacher was helping one of her kindergarten students put his boots on?

He asked for help and she could see why. With her pulling and him pushing, the boots still didn't want to go on.

When the second boot was on, she had worked up a sweat. She almost whimpered when the little boy said, "Teacher, they're on the wrong feet."

She looked and sure enough, they were. It wasn't any easier pulling the boots off then it was putting them on. She managed to keep her cool as together they worked to get the boots back on - this time on the right feet.

He then announced, "These aren't my boots." She bit her tongue rather than get right in his face and scream, "Why didn't you say so?" like she wanted to. Once again she struggled to help him pull the ill-fitting boots off. He then said, "They're my brother's boots. My Mom made me wear them." She didn't know if she should laugh or cry. She mustered up the grace to wrestle the boots on his feet again.

She said, "Now, where are your mittens?"

He said, "I tuffed them in the toes of my boots..."

A husband and wife were at a party chatting with some friends when the subject of marriage counseling came up.

"Oh, we'll never need that. My husband and I have a great relationship," the wife explained.

"He was a communications major in college and I majored in theater arts."

"He communicates real well and I just act like I'm listening."

The Best Valentine's Gift

1. Give your Time

Zig Ziglar once told me, "Love is spelled, T - I - M - E." He is right. I think "time" has become the most valuable thing I have to offer and it is increasing in value the older I get. If I could do my life over one thing I would change would be to give my family and friends more time. I recently realized that the opportunity for this kind of giving closes far too quickly. My beautiful grandchildren once clamored for time with Grandpa. Now the older ones have their own bank account of time and it is I who must often ask to make withdrawals from that precious account.

tantly my being involved in the adventures they created for themselves.

3. Give them your verbal expression of love.

"I love you" may be the most important expression in the universe. I believe these are words we were born to hear and yet it is far too easy to let large chunks of time pass without saying those words. Without those words life is meaningless.

Giving the gift of those words brings meaning, hope the one who hears them. When I recently received a video birthday message from friends and family proclaiming their love, it stirred my soul. When I remember that the message of Christmas is about a creator expressing his love by giving HIMSELF, the assurance of that love informs and transforms my life every day.

God did so much more than give me commandments.

He took time to come and live here. He experienced what I experience. He knows what I face. He focused his attention in my direction. He is there for me every day.

He gifted me with the ultimate expression of love.

*Ken Davis

2. Give your Attention

You ask, "Isn't that the same as giving your time?" Early in the lives of my children I would bring them with me to many events and have them accompany me on my adventures. The key words in that sentence are ME and MY.

Only later in life did I see how different that was from me being with THEM, creating adventure for THEM, or more impor-

MY Promise TO YOU...

When you are sad...I will dry your tears.

When you are scared...I will comfort your fears.

When you are worried...I will give you hope.

When you are confused...I will help you cope.

And when you are lost...and can't see the light, I shall be your beacon...shining ever so bright.

This is my promise...I pledge till the end.

Why you may ask?...Because I love you!

Signed:
GOD

Jesus said, "Come to Me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest. "Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and YOU WILL FIND REST FOR YOUR SOULS. "For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

Love One Another

The trio is affectionately referred to as BLT, standing for bear, lion, and tiger. They might just be the most adorable sandwich ever! This is Leo the African Lion, Baloo the Black Bear, and Shere Khan the Bengal Tiger. This lion, tiger and bear are the most unlikely gang of friends you'll come across.

The threesome was rescued as babies from the basement of an Atlanta drug dealer's home when it was raided by authorities. They were starving, traumatized, and had bacterial infections. Since then, they were brought to Noah's Ark Animal Sanctuary in Locust Grove

Lions and tigers and bears, oh my!

Georgia, where they've lived in the same habitat together for 13 years.

The only time the three were separated was when Baloo was sent to surgery. While at the drug dealer's home, Baloo had been mistreated so profoundly that the harness that was put on him had grown into his skin. The two cats were distraught and cried for the bear's return when he was at the vet's. Since then, no one has separated the group. They had clearly bonded during their earliest memories, and never wanted to be apart.

Now they live together as if they were brothers of the same species. They play together, nuzzle one another, and are extremely affectionate. The threesome is the only lion, tiger, and bear living together in the entire world. They're just that exceptional. Humans could really learn from the bond that these three have. Kind of incredible when you consider they are each from a different continent by nature and would never ever meet in the wild. It's also funny to consider they would likely have different languages and culinary desires coming from different regions of the world, yet they get along despite their dif-

13 If I speak in the tongues<sup>[a]</sup> of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup> If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup> If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast,<sup>[b]</sup> but do not have love, I gain nothing. <sup>4</sup> Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. <sup>5</sup> It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. <sup>6</sup> Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. <sup>7</sup> It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. <sup>8</sup> Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. <sup>9</sup> For we know in part and we prophesy in part, <sup>10</sup> but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. <sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. <sup>12</sup> For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. <sup>13</sup> And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

Dear Good News,

My name is Sean Duane Johnson and I am 38 years old and incarcerated in the Gibb Lewis Unit in Woodville, Texas. I have been a saved soul since 1991 when I was first introduced to the gospel of Jesus Christ. I love God with all my mind, heart and spirit, and I'm trying to love my neighbor as I love myself.

I would like to pay tribute to a wonderful man that has witnessed and encouraged so many in this world. His name is Chaplain David Rust and he has been a volunteer here for 20 years. I wish you could meet him. He is so full of love. He has been bringing us The Good News Just Keeps Coming for several years and we so look forward to reading them, and all without any pay for him.

Brother Rust always came diligently on the high security wing, even with the arguing, yelling and cursing going on to bring The Good News to us prisoners. His love was unconditional and he prayed with me for the six years I've been here. He turned 90 years old on July 4, 2014 and is a World War II veteran and also a recovering alcoholic for the past 40 years. What an inspiration in deed. At one point he would ride his bicycle up here on the weekends to pray and encourage all of us.

He has written several books about his testimony, his struggles and accomplishments. He is a strong comforter, a strong man with a soft heart. He is an inspiration to the broken hearted behind these brick walls. I love him very much.

Can I please ask for a subscription as Pastor Rust is no longer able to visit with us. He is getting ready for his trip home where I know he will hear our Lord say to him, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

With Love

With love God created us with His perfect hands,
And for every life that is born He has a plan.
Some don't always see it as they look the other way,
And with love He patiently waits for them to follow Him one day.
Already knowing and seeing the things that they'll go through,
Thinking maybe this time they'll look up, and say God I need you.
These are the words that He waits for with love longing to hear,
From the voices of the ones He created, and to Him are so dear.
We all are His children and we are here because of Him,
And with love God sacrificed His only Son so we could be forgiven of our sins.
What else could we ask for, He's everything we need and so much more,
When you hear His voice softly speaking to your heart open the door.
When He comes into your life only good things will He bring,
Forgiveness love, and, joy things you'll never be searching for again.
With love God created us and we all belong to Him,
And with love He patiently waits for us to come back to where we began.
